

These are all new books published in 2020 that are highly rated by professional library reviewers, and are available to checkout from any Dayton Metro Library location. (Alphabetical by title)

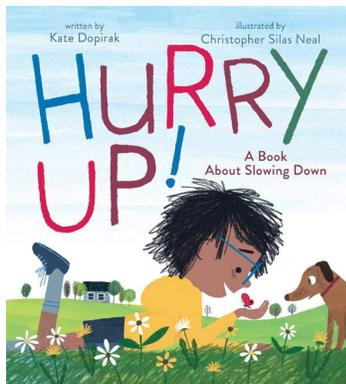

Black Is a Rainbow Color
by Angela Joy
(4-8 years)

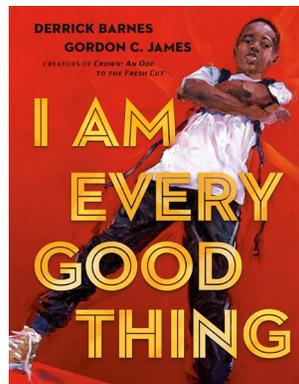

Child of the Universe
by Ray Jayawardhana
(3-6 years)

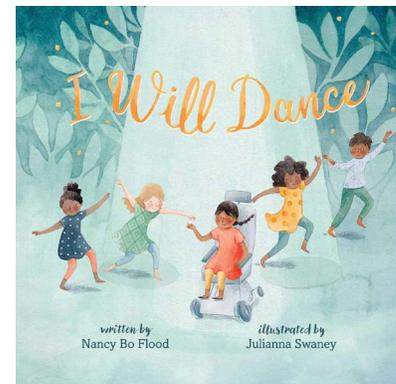

Hike
by Pete Oswald
(4-8 Years)

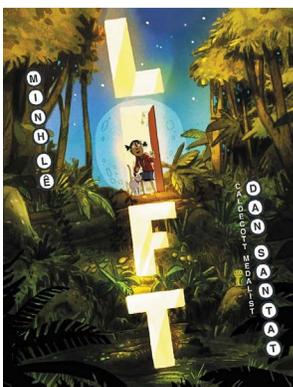

Hurry Up: A Book About Slowing Down
by Kate Dopirak (3-6 years)

I Am Every Good Thing
by Derrick Barnes
(3-7 years)

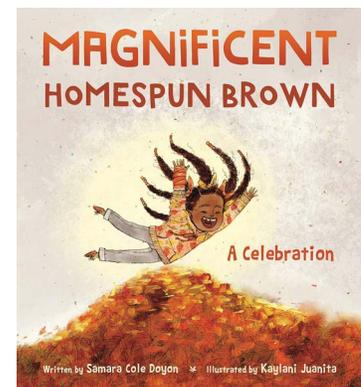

I Will Dance
by Nancy Bo Flood
(4-8 years)

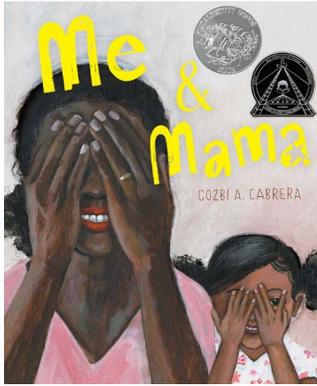

Lift
by Minh Lê
(4-8 years)

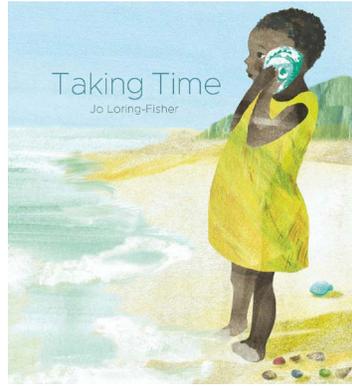

Like the Moon Loves the Sky
by Hena Khan
(3-5 years)

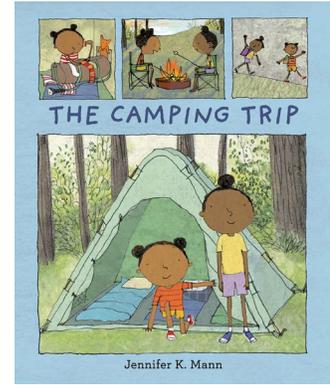

Magnificent Homespun Brown: A Celebration
by Samara Cole Doyon
(5-8 years)

Me & Mama
by Cozbi A. Cabrera
(4-8 years)

Taking Time
by Jo Loring-Fisher
(4-8 years)

The Camping Trip
by Jennifer K. Mann
(4-7 years)

We Are Water Protectors
by Carole Lindstrom
(4-8 years)

Why Am I Me?
by Paige Britt
(3-7 years)

You Matter
by Christian Robinson
(3-8 years)

Additional Resources

Dr. Iruka has recommended a book list created by colleagues:

Racially Affirming Books for Black Children

Sims, J., Curenton, S. M., & Rochester, S. E. (2020, July).

(Age 0-12). Boston: Center on the Ecology of Early Development <https://bit.ly/2M8gfNO>

